

Fiddle and Dance at Sugarbush Concert

Two sure signs of spring around these parts are when the maple syrup starts to flow and when Prince Edward County cranks up the "Maple in the County" Festival.

As part of the Maple in the County festivities, the Regent Theatre will present "A Sugarbush Fiddle and Dance Concert." Sunday, March 25th at 2:30 p.m.

Expect top notch fiddling and dancing in the spirit of the old sugarbush parties. The line up of entertainers includes the dynamic fiddle and accordion duo of Tom

Leighton and Conrad Kipping, local favourites Jamie Snider, Jake DeVries and Mark Despault with their new contemporary country folk band XRoads, county fiddler Zeke Mazurek and his new eclectic "roots" music trio "Kirby, Yates and Mazurek", the young local trio Fiddlers Found, and of course, to top it all off, some extraordinary step-dancing from Jennifer McCracken, Vanessa McCourt, Emily Brant and Meagan O'Neil.

At 1 p.m. on Sunday, March 25th before the Sugarbush concert there will be a reception for the "Art at the Regent" show with a focus on the maple industry in the County. Artists will be in attendance.

Reserved seating admission for the concert is $25, $20. for Regent Theatre members and $15 for youth 12 years old and younger (with a 2007 Maple in the County Wrist Band).

Flipping flapjacks for Habitat homes

Hungry visitors enjoying the taste of maple will help house a County family or two in the future.

For the fourth year, Ed and Sandi Taylor will open their sugar bush to the Habitat for Humanity crew who will prepare their famous traditional pancake breakfasts this weekend at HoneyWagon Farms, on Sandy Hook Road. Bev Verge will entertain both days from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.
