

Gazette photo by Jason Parks

'Tis The Sap Season – Todd Vader keeps a close eye on boiling sap on Sunday afternoon at the Vader sap house near Salmon Point. Vader reports the sap run, which started on March 5, has been slow but steady and the quality and sugar content, due to high levels of sunlight, has been top notch. Vader expects the sap to still be running when Maple in the County gets underway on March 29 and 30.